

MOAATH IBRAHIM

CYBERSECURITY

ABOUT ME

Cybersecurity graduate passionate about data protection and vulnerability assessment. Possess foundational knowledge in networking, operating systems, and risk analysis, with the ability to use basic penetration testing tools. Gained hands-on experience through field training at the General Center for Software Development, and continuously striving to enhance my skills through learning and practical projects.

EDUCATION

Irbid National University
Cybersecurity Diploma

Irbid National University
Cybersecurity Diploma

SKILLS

- Setting up virtual environments using VirtualBox and VMware.
- Basic knowledge of Windows and Linux from a security perspective.
- Applying encryption and data protection principles
- Video editing and content creation using CapCut and LightMotion.
- Graphic design and image editing with Photoshop and Canva.

LANGUAGES

- Arabic
- English (3)

EXPERIENCE

- Strong understanding of information security fundamentals and cybersecurity concepts
- Good knowledge of networking fundamentals and architecture
- Advanced analytical thinking and problem-solving skills
- Familiarity with the media production industry through experience with Turning Tables Jordan Film Industry
- Proven ability to work collaboratively and contribute to professional video production and editing
- Freelance video editing experience for clients, creating personalized content.
- Photography experience, capturing high-quality images for various projects